

Lcdr. Jim Waldron accepts the first two UH-46A helicopters from the naval technical representative at the Boeing Vertol factory near Philadelphia, PA. Both aircraft were then flown to HC-1 at Ream Field, Imperial Beach, California. Both aircraft and factory trained officers and enlisted men were later transferred to HC-1 Detachment Atsugi for Vertical Replenishment operations.